

M2i applies for patents on results obtained from the materials research program and valorization modules to enable successful commercial exploitation of these results. Please find under Patents a complete list of the patents that M2i applied for. The links also include an option to download the full text.

For information about these patents please contact the M2i Office .